Miss Ellen Whalen Entertains Music Class.

Miss Whalen entertained quite a number of her music pupils last Friday afternoon. The musical games, "Great Composers, and Allegro," were played. These games, besides being very interesting, are very instructive.

A collection of seventy portrait biographies of the world's foremost composers, who have lived during the last two hundred years, in form of an art gallery, and arranged alphabetically, was won by Gladys Walker, and selections from the Great Composers, were won by the following pupils: Thelma West, Margaret Atkinson, Mayme Foster, Camye Fox, Pansy Myers and Katie Cavanaugh.

Miss Whalen is one of our best up to date teachers. She has a series of fine reproductions of celebrated paintings in her studio, and the most approved likeness of the following composers: Greig, Haydn, Liszt, Abt, Gounod, Beethoven, and Padrewski. She will resume her full class the first week in September.

Mrs. H. B. Houser, who formerly lived here, gave to a few of her friends in Howell, Ind., a birthday dinner, this being her 50th birthday and also her eighth wedding anniversary to Mr. Rosser. A delightful dinner was served and she received many presents from friends. About 9 o'clock twenty-five of her friends surprised her at her home and brought loads of good things to eat and everyone enjoyed themselves. Mrs. O. P. Webb, of this city, was a guest of Mrs. Rosser.

STABBED IN QUARREL

Men Disagree Over Prize Fight and One is Expected to Die.

Evansville, Ind., July 5.—In a last midnight at Howell, below here over the Jeffries-Johnson fight, Harvey Stanbush, aged 40, was stabbed in the breast and side by, Rolla Rogers, it is alleged, and will probably die. The police are looking for Rogers.

"Lawlessness in Mountains."

An echo comes from the press meeting at Middlesboro in regard to what is called the lawlessness in the mountains. It is time that the press of the State was learning the important lesson of defending rather than attacking the mountain people, for they have been much abused and much misrepresented. We call attention to the truth about Eastern Kentucky as told by one of the Middlesboro speakers and it ought to put the rest of the State to thinking. Said he, "have you editors ever heard of a crime committed in the mountains like the Kellner case in Louisville? Have you ever heard of a case of defalcation, of embezzlement or such rascality up here? Have you ever heard of a case of horse stealing up here? Have you ever heard of any licensed house of ill fame up here? Have you ever heard of a case of seduction or betrayal up here? Have you ever heard of a man failing to provide for his family, or of many suits for divorce on our dockets? Take your daily papers and read the number of criminal cases in the police courts in your cities, yes, bring it right down to your own home towns. Compare our police court records with yours. Now, which should be termed the lawless section?"

POSTAL SAVINGS BANK

How Operated—The Law Regulating Government Institutions.

The following is a brief synopsis of Postal Savings Banks and their regulations:

Fourth-class Postmasters will receive extra pay for work in postal savings banks.

STATEMENT OF L. & N.
FOR YEAR JUST PAST

Increase in Gross Earnings Over Previous Fiscal Year About Seven Millions.

The operating revenues of the Louisville & Nashville railroad for the fiscal year, which ended with the month of June, are in excess of $52,000,000.

The statement, which was issued Tuesday, and which include the four weeks of June, shows an increase over the corresponding period last year in gross earnings of $6,985,017, and the few remaining days of the month will doubtless carry the increase over the seven million mark.

The statement of estimated operating revenues, issued today, shows:

For fourth week of June, 1910.....	$ 1,267,735
Corresponding week of last year.....	1,042,623
Increase.....	225,112
Total for four weeks of June, 1910.....	$ 4,211,835
Corresponding period of last year.....	3,527,708
Increase.....	688,627
July 1, to latest date this year.....	$52,410,909
Corresponding period of last year.....	46,425,892
Increase.....	6,985,017
Mileage 1909-1910—4,600 miles.
Mileage 1908-1909—4,401 miles.

Band Stand to be Built.

Pilkerton and Robinson, the carpenters and contractors, have commenced to build the band stand on the east side of the railroad, north, and across the street from the depot, ordered by the city council some time ago. The K. K. Band will give concerts two evenings during the week. This is a good move and will be highly appreciated by our citizens. We have one of the best cornet bands in the Western part of the State.

Brownlow Near End.

Knoxville, Tenn., July 5.—Congressman W. P. Brownlow is slowly sinking. Physicians have abandoned all hope of his recovery. He is now in a state of coma. Within the past twenty-four hours once or twice he has barely recognized those at his bedside. The end may come at any moment.

Locomotive Blasts.

Steve Mothershead, of Evansville, spent the Fourth in the city with his parents.

Owen Shaver has accepted a position with the roundhouse crew and has been assigned to night duty.

J. B. Covington, of the firm of contractors, doing the construction work for the railroad, was in the city Tuesday.

L. M. Brannon, who has been an employe of the St. Bernard for several years, has resigned and will move to Evansville, where he will work for the E. & T. H. R. R.

Mr. Montgomery, conductor on the interurban, has purchased a nice home at Madisonville and will move his family to that city. He will come to this city on 53 every morning, to go out on his run at 5:45.

The many friends of M. Devney, Assistant Superintendent of this division, will regret to learn that he is quite ill at his home in Evansville, Ind. It may be possible that he will be compelled to undergo an operation.

A busy scene indeed was the round house Wednesday afternoon about 2 o'clock. Twelve engines were being worked on, some just come in, others going out, bells ringing, whistles blowing, and the smoke and steam made our city look like a railroad center.

NEGRO LYNCHED

Black Foiled by Intended Woman Victim Hanged by a Texas Posse.

Houston, Texas, July 5.—At Robini, near Corsicana, yesterday, a negro entered the home of Hub Bailey, a merchant, and brandishing a knife threatened a criminal assault upon Mrs. Bailey, a bride of three months, who grappled with him, securing the weapon and forcing the negro to take flight.

Posses caught the negro today in Richland creek bottom and, after he was identified, he was hanged to a tree nearby. The body was found and cut down later.

Jackson Will Have Another Newspaper.

Jackson, Ky., July 2.—Jackson will have a new weekly newspaper which will begin publication by the first of August. The paper will be published by the Sentinal Publishing Company, a corporation now being organized for that purpose with a capital stock of $5,000, and instead of being a purely local paper will extend its circulation throughout the Tenth Congressional district.

The new paper, "The Sentinel," will be Democratic in politics and will be under the editorial management of Hon. R. C. Musick, one of the best known Democrats in this section. L. T. Hovemal, former editor of the "Jackson Democrat" and well known throughout Eastern Kentucky, will do much of the editorial work and have charge of the news and mechanical departments.

Speaking of the new venture Mr. Hovemal said:

"The style of the paper will be regular eight-page, 48 column paper, containing ample advertising space and be devoted to the cream of the general and political news, especially of Kentucky and the tenth Congressional district."

Roie Herring. Though weighing but half a pound, a roie herring will lay 45,000 eggs at a time.

Base Ball.

Chas. Burdon, pitcher for the Winchester, Ky., baseball team, spent the Fourth in the city with his uncle, J. M. Burdon.

The Henderson baseball boys, who played here Monday, are a fine set of gentlemen and we will be glad to have them visit us again.

The Louisville baseball team, who came here Tuesday to play the home boys, could not play on account of the wet condition of the park. They went from here to Morganfield.

REFUSED TO WED.
IS DISFIGURED

Former Evansville Policeman Victim of Acid Thrower at Owensboro.

Owensboro, Ky., July 5.—Because Harry Lindsay, a former Evansville policeman but now a painter in Owensboro, attempted to prevent Mrs. Harry Wilson, a married woman, from committing suicide, which she tried to do because he refused to marry her, the woman dashed the contents of a four ounce bottle of carbolic acid in Lindsay's face. His face was badly burned, but he will recover, although the scars will be permanent. Mrs. Wilson has divorce proceedings before the circuit court of Hancock county. She is a pretty woman, 26 years old and the daughter of Judge Massie.

Son of Henry Watterson Shoots Man.

Ewing Watterson, son of Col. Henry Watterson, shot and wounded a saloon keeper at Sangerites, N. Y., Friday. Col. Watterson, who was in New York, went to Sangerites to assist him. Ewing Watterson, his father says, has for some years been the victim of a form of religious mania which has failed completely to yield to any treatment. In an effort to better his son's condition, Col. Watterson placed him for some time on a ranch in the West, and when his environment failed to result in improvement in his condition bought him a farm in the Hudson River Hills, where it was hoped the air and quiet surroundings would benefit him. At last account bail had not been arranged.

Moving Pictures of the Fight Not to be Seen.

After all the money that has been spent on the moving pictures of the fight at Reno, Nev., of Jeffries and Johnson, it seems as if the work was done for nothing, as all the large cities are making laws now to allow the pictures to be shown on the canvas, claiming that in the largely populated centers it will cause fights and riots between the whites and blacks. Johnson sold his rights for $50,000 and Jeffries disposed of his for $60,000. So one can see that there was a good deal of money thrown away on this enterprise. The cities of Boston, Baltimore, Newport, R. I., Cairo, Ill., Cincinnati, St. Louis, Jersey City and other places, have taken steps to stop these pictures.

A Case Like Unto One Here.

Last week while our courts were trying bootlegging cases, a similar affair was going on at Earlinton.

The officers caught a wagon hauling beer into town. The driver said it belonged to one Favers. They not only fined Favers and gave him a jail sentence, for having the stuff, but fined the driver $50 for hauling it in the town and county.—The Calloway Times.

MAN ACCUSED OF KILLING
TAKES HIS OWN LIFE

Moses Gatliff, Who Shot Sheriff Givens, Slashes Own Throat.

Pineville, Ky., July 5.—Moses Gatliff, who shot and killed Deputy Sheriff Gordon Givens near Middlesboro, several months ago, committed suicide at about 9:45 this morning by slashing his throat with a razor.

Gatliff, who was badly wounded in his duel with Givens, had been out on bond. His bondsmen, however, gave him up this morning and turned him over to the jailer. He walked into the resident part of the jail and while conversing with his wife, opened a hand grip which he carried, got a razor and drew it across his jugular vein.

Attracted by the screams of Gatliff's wife, a crowd quickly gathered and a doctor was summoned, but nothing could be done for the unfortunate man, and he died in a few minutes.

Dr. Hyde Sentenced to Prison for Life.

Kansas City, July 5.—Dr. B. C. Hyle, convicted of having poisoned Col. Thomas H. Swope, the millionaire philanthropist, was sentenced to life imprisonment at hard labor by Judge Ralph S. Latschaw in the Criminal Court here this morning.

Struck by Lightning.

Owensboro, Ky., July 5.—While driving near Whitesville late Monday late and Wade Bartlett were struck by lightning and severely injured. The horse they were driving was shocked so badly that it will die.

MINING NOTES.

Claim Record of State.

On June 22, 1910, Frank Gibbs, machineman, and W. R. Woodis, hostler, miners of the Kington Coal Co., at Mortons Gap, cut one hundred and seventy one lineal feet and 41 inches of coal in 7 hours and 45 minutes, not including 15 minutes for lunch, which would make 8 hours. They also made 9 sets, and moved the machine at one time 548 feet, and you will note there were 9 tight boards. The cutting was done with a Sullivan punching machine. This is claimed to be the record of the State.

Coal Mines and Coke Ovens.

Ashland, Ky.,—Kentucky River-Consolidated Coal Co. incorporated with $1,000,000 capital stock by John F. Hager, J. W. M. Stewart, B. E. Whitman and Jas. G. Serey of Ashland, and John M. Hopkins of Catlettsburg, Ky.; company combines coal properties heretofore held separately; development plans not mature; John F. Hager, president.

Honor of Earlinton Boy.

Jno. Robinson, who has been Superintendent of the Reliance Coal & Coke Co. at Hartranft, Tenn., has been made Assistant General Manager of all departments at a handsome salary. Mr. Robinson formerly lived here and he has only been with the above concern about six months.

Maj. S. H. Kimmel has returned, after several days spent with his parents in Henderson.

Ernest Clayton, weighman at Victoria mines, was in the city a few days ago visiting friends.

W. H. Kline spent a few hours Monday on business at the Kington mines.

J. T. Barnett, of St. Charles, spent Tuesday in the city on business.

KILLS MAN IN HIS HOME

Penitentiary Official Stabs Youth—Notifies Sheriff's Office by Telephone and is Arrested.

Conway, Ark., July 6.—John A. Pitcock, assistant clerk at the Arkansas State penitentiary, and a brother of Superintendent J. A. Pitcock of the penitentiary, on returning to his home here stabbed Higgins Gibson, 18 years old, of Little Rock, Ark., to death.

Pitcock's business calls him to Little Rock every day, but he maintains his residence at Conway, and his wife spends her entire time here. Young Gibson, who he said to have been acquainted with Mrs. Pitcock for several years, lived in Little Rock. He arrived in Conway last Saturday.

Shortly after 10 o'clock Pitcock arrived from Little Rock. He reached his house about 10:30 o'clock. Neighbors heard a woman's cries from within the house.

A few minutes later Pitcock called the sheriff's office and announced that he had killed a man. W. M. Grady, the sheriff, hurried to the Pitcock home and placed the man under arrest.

Gibson's body, backed almost beyond recognition, was found on the floor. He died within a few minutes.

Misfortune Pursues Family.

Hopkinsville, Ky., July 5.—Misfortune has pursued Lindsay Mitchell, the tobacco buyer, who was brutally assaulted by night riders during their memorable raid on Hopkinsville. His wife died a few months ago, after birth of a son, and this child died Sunday night. During the funeral procession today Mr. Mitchell's only living child, a boy aged six, who was sitting in his grandmother's lap, fell from the carriage and was run over, being badly injured. Mr. Mitchell himself is in bed, seriously ill.
